The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE):

- may change, delete, add to or otherwise amend information contained on this website without notice
- may include superseded, revoked or archived information as historic reference and it should not be relied on as being accurate
- is not responsible for the content of other websites linked to or referenced from this site (MBIE neither endorses the information, content, presentation or accuracy of such other websites, nor make any warranty, express or implied, regarding these other sites).

The information available on this website is not intended to cover every situation, and may not include details relevant to a user's particular circumstances.

Accordingly, users are advised to seek independent professional advice before applying any information contained on this site to their own particular circumstances. MBIE shall not be held liable for any claim for any loss or damage as a result of reliance on the information contained in this website.

Each page on this website must be read in conjunction with these terms and any other terms that form part of it.

This information is published by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment's Chief Executive. It is a general guide only and, if used, does not relieve any person of the obligation to consider any matter to which the information relates according to the circumstances of the particular case. Expert advice may be required in specific circumstances. Where this information relates to assisting people:

- with compliance with the Building Act, it is published under section 175 of the Building Act
- with a Weathertight Services claim, it is published under section 12 of the Weathertight Homes Resolution Services Act 2006.
